Twenty youngsters from Assam selected for free yearlong IAS coaching in Delhi

The Board of Trustees of Ajmal Foundation headed by M Badruddin Ajmal and Mr Sirajuddin Ajmal has initiated a number of educational programmes including establishment of educational institutions in different remote rural areas of Assam for the upliftment of downtrodden section of the society.

The Trustees have realised that the representation of SC, ST, OBC and minority communities in national level competitive examinations in general, and civil services examinations in particular, is very minimal.

Keeping this in view the Trustees have decided to launch, in fond memory of Lt. Haji Ajmal Ali, the 'Ajmal Free IAS Coaching Programme' in Delhi for candidates belonging to the SC, ST, OBC and minority communities. So, the one year long free IAS Coaching in Delhi was launched last year and ten candidates were selected for this programme who are undergoing free coaching in Delhi now. All their expenses are borne by the Ajmal Foundation.

The coaching is conducted in collaboration with GS Mentors, Delhi, "an institute of top IAS trainers," which provides coaching for civil services and allied examinations. This year, a total of Twenty candidates have been selected through screening tests which was held on 21st May, 2017 in Delhi, Guwahati, Sivasagar, Hojai, Dhubri & Karimganj. The 20 selected candidates are scheduled to go to Delhi for coaching in 2017-18 session. They are Bhargab Hazarika, Guwahati; Sudip Gogoi, Sivasagar; Jitul Shivam, Guwahati; Syeda Roslina Parwez, Lumding; Asif Ahmed, Guwahati; Syeda Misahali Naz, Guwahati; Chandan Kr Sahani, Guwahati; Sweta Borthakur, Guwahati; Munmi Gogoi, Guwahati; Ijaz Ahmed, Darrang; Trisiddha Nath, Majuli; Ihsanul Hussain, Morigaon; Eftekhar Hussain, Goalpara; Roushinul Alom, South Salmara-Mankachar; Sajidul Islam, Goalpara; Firdusar Rahman, Rangia; Syeda Fahima Shahnaz Sultana, Guwahati; Najia Sultana Patwary, Hojai; Mahmuda Modni Khatun, Sivasagar and Habibur Rahman, Kokrajhar. All the above mentioned selected candidate will be provided free coaching, food, accommodation and study materials for a period of one year.

Two more students of Assam joined free IAS coaching in Delhi

Mr Khasrul Islam, General Manager, Ajmal Foundation, felicitated two selected candidates for free IAS Coaching in Delhi on Nov-24, 2017, at Ajmal Foundation, Hojai.

Ajmal Foundation selected two more youngsters of Assam for free yearlong IAS coaching (session-2017-18) in Delhi on November-24, 2017. The two meritorious students are Soma Roy, an engineering graduate, who hails from Lanka, Ward No-7, under Lanka PS of Hojai district, Soma pursuing IAS Coaching in Hamdard Study Circle, New Delhi and Shama Parveen, a science graduate, hails from Dhokuakhana, Lakhimpur district, Shama pursuing IAS coaching in Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi. 10 candidates of previous year are continuing their coaching and many of them already cleared the Prelims and appeared the Main examination.
